Office Party Commissioned Story

Hypnotic Takeover at the Bar

Vincent, an experienced hypnotist has come to the local bar where he held a hypnosis show the last night. He's there to collect his money, but Isabel the bar's owner is not very accommodating. Will the hypnotist let this slide or will that bar soon have a new owner? (Some people can answer that question just by reading the Headline! Bummer!)

Featuring:

Vincent ... an experienced hypnotist at the age of 40 Isabel ... the owner of the local pub Nicole & Ally ... as usual, the waitresses at said pub Ellena ... a guest at the pub You Can't be serious. That show was super boring!

People want to see a swinging pocket watch or at least a Candle.
