Some time not too long ago in a fictional dimension of „Office Party“ ...

Office Party Special

Marco and the Universal Remote - Part II Definitely not cuckolding!

In part one Marco has gotten his hand on a reality-changing universal remote control. He has used it on his boss Stacey and his co-worker Sayo. Besides several physical transformations, Marco has used the powerful trinket to get a blow-job from those two hot office girls.

Now Marco has withdrawn to his office and while trying to focus on work, his thoughts drift back to those events some hours ago. Was it all a dream? Did that really happen? The remote is still in his pocket... What will he do when Lucine enters his office to get some help from her husband James?

Marco has gone back to his office and is trying to focus on work... but his thoughts keep drifting back to his sexual interactions with Sayo and Stacey in the meeting room...

Yo, Marco. You look a bit out of it. Was the game that bad?

Uh... I don't know. Sayo and Stacey were there. Couldn't watch it.

I see. TV blocked by the boss! Well, at least Stacey did not realize you were about to use office equipment to watch the game... right?

Nah. She has no clue...

Game? Oh, the game...

Was it all a dream... Or did that really happen?

Hey there,

Hon, I could use your help with some number-crunching.
Got time?

Sure,
show me.

Hi, Lucine.

Lucine is a real hottie...

Some pages later James has managed to help his wife with her problem. In the meantime Marco has used the remote to play around with the couple – shrinking James down in size and going through several hair changes for Lucine until he finally settled for the current one.

And just as Lucine wants to leave the office, Marco decides to turn up the heat and shrink her down in size as well.

Blow Job
