Office Party
Monthly Side Story VI
Transformative Work Regulation

Featuring Transformations:

Breast Expansion

Shrinking

Growth

Stacey has acquired a new gadget that can do physical alterations to one's body according to one's success/failure at work. A marvellous and genius prototype that will ensure worker morale and also bind workers to their workplace. (Cause where else will you find an employer that can undo those changes?)

Cast:

Stacey

Charlotte

Julie

Sayo

Hey there.
You've been called in as well?

Oh god. Not another one of Stacey's new management methods!

Yup. No idea what this is though.

"The Carrot
and the stick"
... strange title
for a meeting!

Seems like it...

What is she even doing in there?

She told us to wait outside until she's finished...

No idea!
But she's tinkering with that machine for a while now!

Let's just hope this will be over soon. I have no time for this stupid stuff!

Let's find out. I think she's ready!

Why are there only us three?

Damn it, Charlotte's tall! Well... also I'm short...

I've finally managed to boot this thing up! We can start now girls.

You are probably asking yourselves: "What is this thing?"

This machine behind me is called the "OSS" - The Office-Share-System".

It's meant to increase office moral and give you the needed push, so you'll give your best at the workplace.

It has finally happened. She's gone mad.

... It seems so...

What the heck is Stacey talking about?

The machine can transform a human's body in various ways.

It is configured to translate success or failure in work related projects to adequate changes of your body.

Changes are locked in for a whole quarter. Until then, you can not be changed back.

Next quarter... well, work performance will be reevaluated once again.

Thank god I was able to activate that voice activation prototype. Typing on that console is just ridiculously tedious!

Is Stacey actually really believing what she just said?

She sounded pretty convinced to me.

Stacey... I don't even want to know what all this junk behind you did cost. I really have no time for your delusions.

Oh, really Charlotte? Well, then let's start with you!

humming

You always talk big and are so proud. But actually, it's your fault we lost the Ellington case. And in the process, we lost one of our best paying customers!

Your work performance recently was far below mediocre!

So, I believe some penalty is in store for you, to take you down from that high horse you believe you are riding!

Oh really?! So,
that's how it is?
You give me all the fault? That case
was unwinnable,
and you know it!

shrink

You know what? I did not work my ass off for this company to get shouted at by a little floozy from management school with no experience whatsoever!

shrink

O.M.G.
Sayo! Look!

Erm...
Charlotte?

What's wrong?

I will not tolerate any more of your stupid ideas.
They are never working out!

shrink

Do you see what I am seeing?!

Oh my god!
That can't be happening!

If my skills are not appreciated here, I'll quit. Trust me,
the competition
would be thrilled to have me!

Charlotte!

I would not say things like that if I were you Charlotte...

Oh dear. You really did not listen now, did you?

No way...

The changes are locked in for the next three month.

Even if I wanted to there is no way I could change you back right now.

Now behave yourself and show good performance.

And next quarter the machine might deem you worthy of regaining some of what you've lost.

That is, of course, it you decide to stay with us. If you rather leave you'll have to stay like this indefinitely.

Now let's proceed. Julie, $ayo...

No use running, $ayo. The doors are locked!

Please don't do this, $tacey!

We promise, we'll do better! There is no need for you to use the machine!

Please don't Stacey! We did well!

Please! I'm already too short!

Girls! Calm down. There is no need to panic!

I can't believe it. I'm a midget!

HARDWARE

*wimper*

Let's start with you Julie.

You've shown outstanding engagement and your happy to go spirit has been a huge moral boost to everyone around here.

So, it's obvious to me that you are in for a reward!

sob

Please Stacey.
That's really not necessary.

What's that gotta do with...
Oh...

Oh god. Oh
god! Are we all at Stacey's mercy!

Ah don't be like that.
You deserve it! And I so happen to know that you are saving up for a breast augmentation, are you not?

I feel strange!

No way!
Did her... did they just grow?

Woah!

Yup!
Definitely growing!

O.M.G.
They are huge!

Going a little overboard
here?

chuckele

I... I've never thought of going this big...

Isn't that a bit much?

You like them?

I can go back next quarter if they are too much, right?

Sure. If you keep up the good work, anything's possible.

Then I freaking love them! Thank you, Stacey!

Great! See, the machine knows how to do its job!

No way...

Woah!

Holy!
Finally, we can see eye
to eye!

Now don't look down on me, big girl. You're not done growing, I think.

High
five!

This is great!

There we go. Happy?

The world really looks different from up here!

I'm tall!
I'm really tall!

These babies are awesome!

Now Marco will surely notice me!

I'm glad you guys are happy.

Last quarter went really well.

Egomaniac bitch!

Overall, all curves are going up.

So, I, as the boss around her, am doing something right, I'd say!

And I think my curves deserve a little upgrade as well.

Next quarter
everything can be changed again.

shrink

shrink

Ha-ha-ha.
You sure that's all
that's changing, Stacey?
Look me in the eyes
and say that again!

I can feel my breasts expanding.
It's an exhilarating
feeling Charlotte!

shrink

What are you talk...
No way... You are tall again?...

Ha-ha-ha.
Stupid!

No
freaking way!

There must be a way to revert this!

Changes have been locked in. Subject "Stacey" can not be changed for another three months.

And I'm sure we can fix you back up next quarter.

There is no need to overreact like this, Stacey. Being small is not that bad.

Midget!

No way! This can't be happening!

Changes have been locked in. Subject "Stacey" can not be changed for another three months.

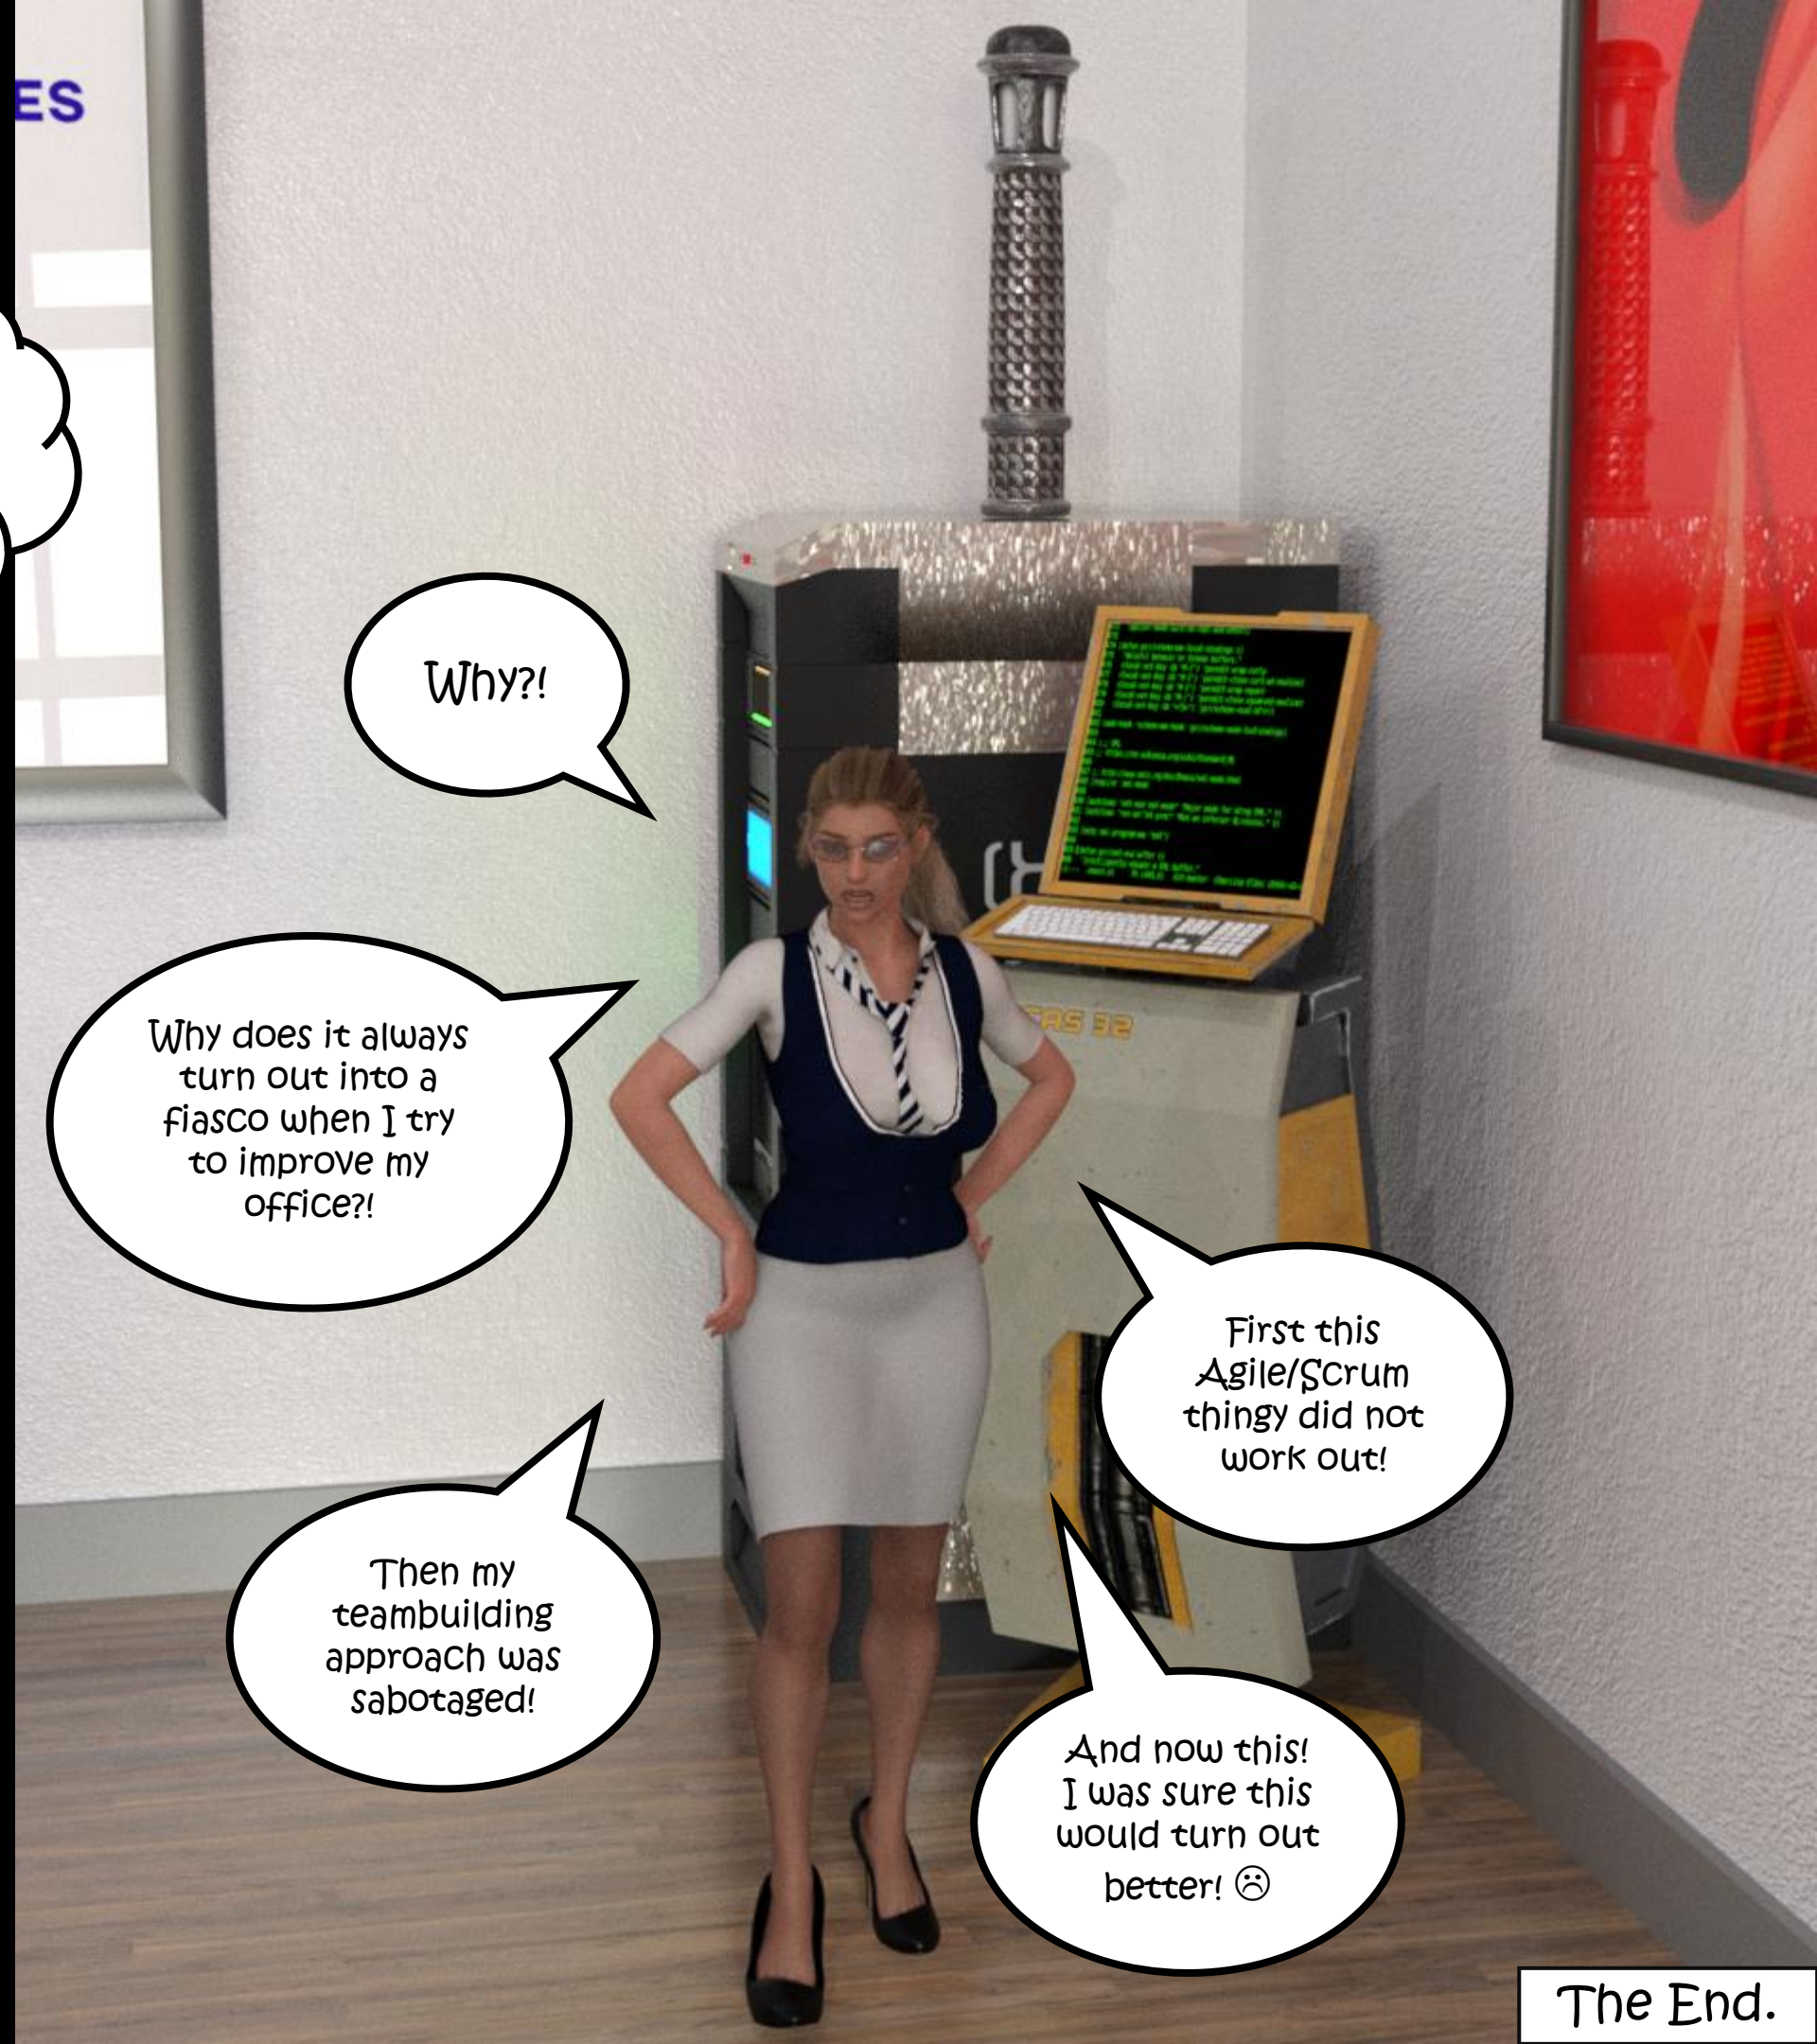

I'm tall!

Marco, here I come.

Next quarter... with the help of that machine! I'm gonna rule the office!

Why?!

Why does it always turn out into a fiasco when I try to improve my office?!

Then my teambuilding approach was sabotaged!

First this Agile/Scrum
thingy did not work out!

And now this!
I was sure this would turn out better! ☹️

The End.
