Love Bug Bite 2 The Suiciductress

Previously we met Marco, a standard nerd, visiting a high-tech genetics lab with his class. They had some genetically modified bugs there... Bugs that are known for their strength, speed,... and strong pheromones! And, who would have guessed, one of those bugs had escaped its glassy prison and bit Marco! The next day Marco discovers he has no more need for his glasses... and abs!... And... a pretty big dick! It does not take long for him to discover more of his superpowers as he stops a car with his bare hands... and... women start reacting... in strange... horny ways to his presence!

Anyway, ever since acquiring his first three additions to his harem, Marco has sworn to never use those Pheromones again, as he deems their usage evil... even though all the girls are truly happy pleasing him in any way possible. But superhero business is not going well. Aside from a few cats Marco AKA „The Pheormancer“ has saved so far nothing noteworthy has happened. But all of that is about to change when the peaceful scenery in town is disturbed by a series of suicides!

Can the Pheromancer save the next victim?

Alright!
Let's see what's happening in town.

Welcome to the morning news!

I'm Irene Fortune for Channel 69, and as always, I'm bringing you the hottest news around town.

With the death of CEO Erik Steinfeld the death count of Redfield Industry employees is up to three within just this week!

All three jumped to their deaths from tall buildings around town.

The police is still investigating, but in all three cases, they assume it was suicide.

Now you know me!
If it looks like a fish, smells like a fish, and tastes like a fish, it's not necessary a fish,
but just fishy!

Can three suicides in such quick succession really be a coincidence?!
Bullshit!

But I'll let you guys decide!
On our online app!
Use the suicide clicker and let us know if you think whether this was suicide or MURDER!

Now over to Yara, with the weather.

Sadly temperatures are dropping like our suicide victims!

So, prepare for some rainy days and clothe up warm for tomorrow and the days to come.

Thank you, Irene!
