

The lost Temple
Chapter 10
An Apprentice's Mission

In Chapter 10 we will follow Mika as he follows Velia in the hopes of discovering the Ether-Wielder's hideout.

Day 4 of tracking Velia...

I don't think she noticed me tailing her yesterday...

I'm pretty sneaky...

This guy looks suspicious!

Day 3 of tracking Velia...

Good. She's taking the metro to the outskirts of town.

Which means she's going there again... I hope...

I sit a secure distance behind her. Clear sight of the target but no risk of being made. I've watched a lot of secret Agent films!

I can't believe I'm stalking my secret crush on a secret mission for a demon...

And while Mika is trying to keep up with Velia we also join Harry as he tests out the new magic bestowed upon him by Kessy.

Sometime within those three days past, Harry is over at Kim's place. They are working on a student project together.

Thanks to Kessy's intervention, Kim has no recollection of the past week, and therefore she is oblivious to Harry's previous transgressions... Meaning, they have not broken up!

Man, that was only a peck!
Where is the passion?

Man, that was only a peck!
Where is the passion?

Ocavum!

Harry Beldin,

... What's... wrong with your... eyes...

Uhhh...

I am...

Now you are mine.

Hello, Hexxet here.

Chapter 10 will have 3 MC scenes with Harry as he tries out his not yet very powerful Ocavum spell. Mika will mostly run around in this chapter but he'll also flirt a little with Magdalena (the girl from the woods).

Will Mika succeed on his mission to track down Kessy's enemies? And how far will Harry get with Kim? Tune on the lost Temple on 08.12.2023 on Patreon/Gumroad.
