Sleep

Alien

Previously on Small Town UFO Encounter...

From his window, Dylan watches a group of townspeople in nightwear sleepwalk towards the nearby woods.

He wakes his brother and together they go after them...

The two boys can't believe what they find there in a clearing as they follow the group of scantily clad women... and Dean Harrison...

And have the rest do tasks around their spacecraft otherwise impossible with human strength...

They possess two of the women...

Two aliens seem to control the group with some strange high-tech console...

But, after what seems to be a minor dispute between the two aliens...

They leave – probably for the nearby town.

And that's when Marco comes out of hiding, edging his brother on to do the same...

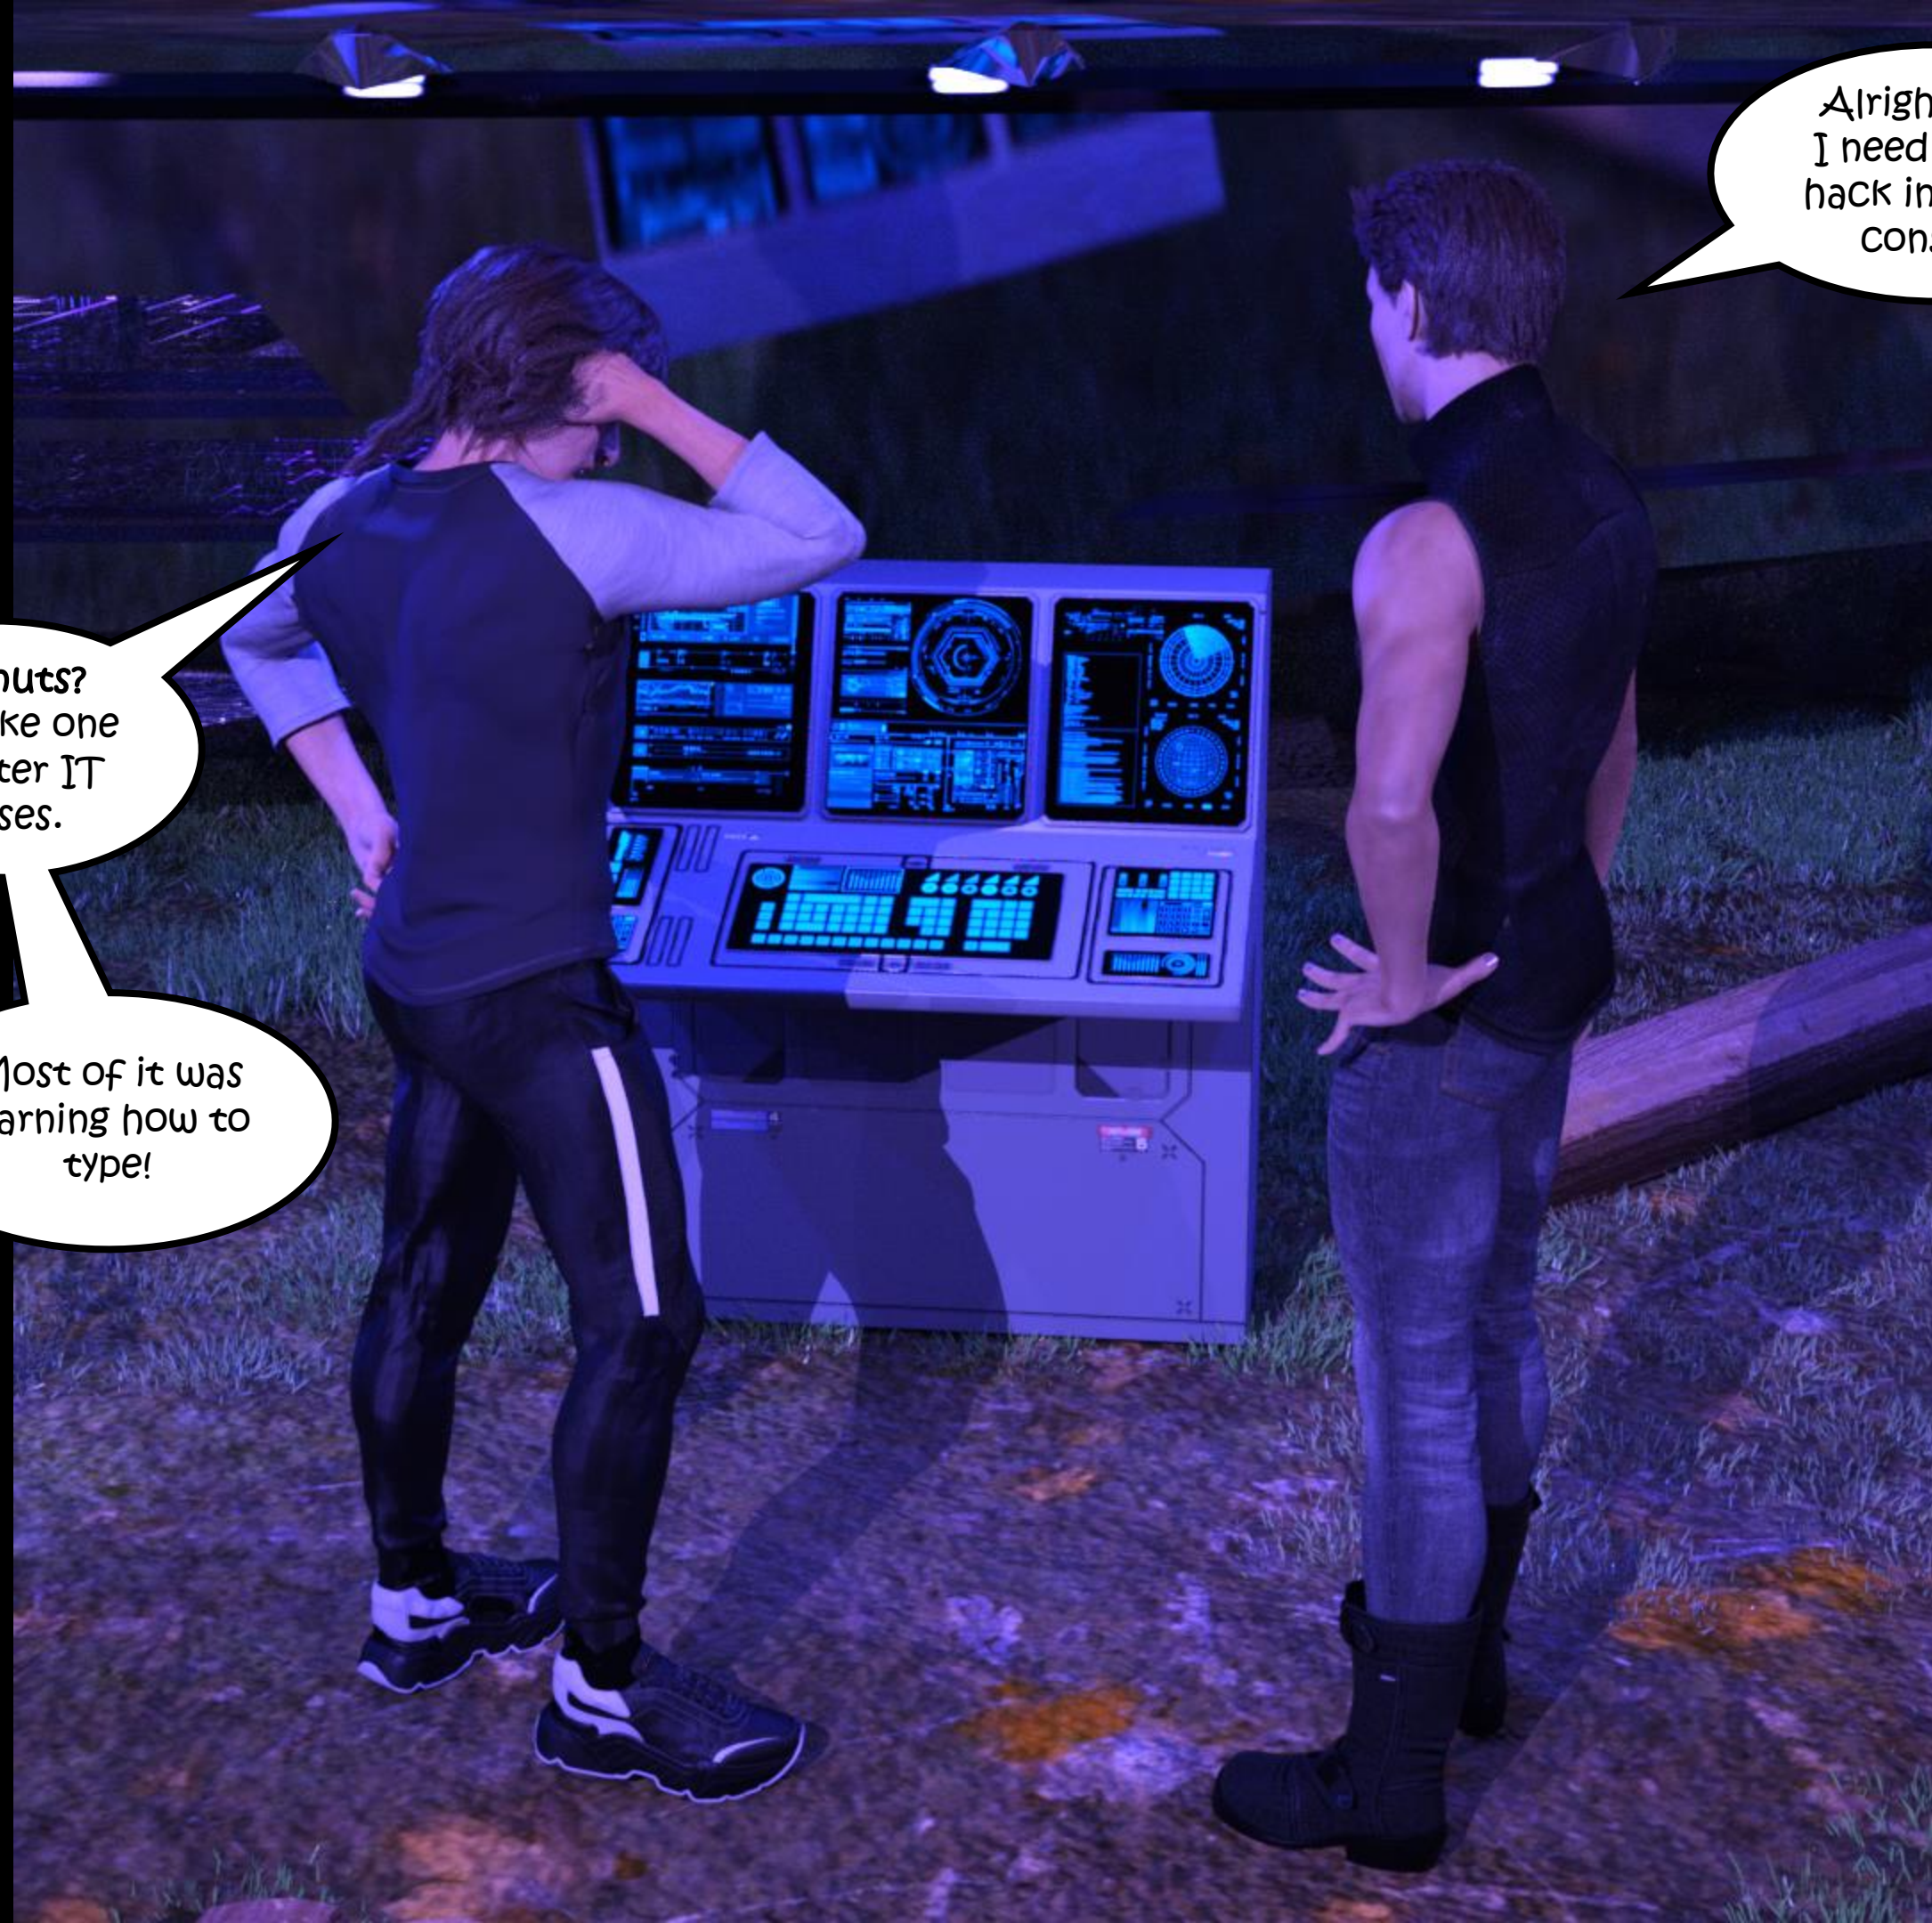

Chapter 2 will continue form here...

You sure they are gone?

Positive. Town's quite a bit from here.

Tsk!

You nuts?
I had like one semester IT Classes.

Most of it was learning how to type!

Alright, bro.
I need you to hack into that console.

Bahaha!
Good one!

No little bro!
Science and shit!
We need to find out what this console can do!

I know...
nerd!

First off: Don't call me little!
You are older
by like one minute!

Second... I'm always up for a scientific experiment!

See, you are typing. That's good!

Huh...
This is easier than I had thought.

Cool!

Now will you look at that... You made them drop their stuff!

Looks to me like they are awaiting further instructions.

Watch our two brothers fool around with the console...

Hey, bro!
Make that one join as well!

As Dylan types away the busty woman positions herself above Marco...

Moan

Nice view!

Before squatting down!

The brothers have quite the fun with that device... but what will happen when the alien's come back?

Oh, shit!

They are coming back!
